MGM Resorts Named "Breakthrough of the Year" At The Sports Business Awards

May 28, 2019 -- MGM Resorts International was honored at the 12th annual Sports Business Awards as the "Breakthrough of the Year" recipient by the Sports Business Journal and Sports Business Daily, a division of Street and Smith's. The award was presented to MGM Resorts at the Sports Business Awards Ceremony in New York last week.

Last summer, MGM Resorts Chairman and CEO Jim Murren announced a historic alliance, naming MGM Resorts the "Official Gaming Partner of the NBA and WNBA." As the first sports betting operator in the U.S. to partner with a professional sports league in this category, MGM Resorts is a trailblazer, bringing millions of basketball fans and MGM Resorts guests together in an innovative and collaborative way. In the process, MGM Resorts is laying the foundation and setting expectations for all other partnerships, changing the way that consumers interact with sports betting operators, clubs and leagues alike.

May 28, 2019 -- MGM Resorts International management will participate in the 35th Annual Bernstein Strategic Decisions Conference in New York on Friday, May 31, 2019. MGM Resorts Chairman and CEO, Jim Murren, will also speak at a session scheduled to begin at 9:00 a.m. Eastern Time. A webcast of the session will be available under the Events & Presentations section of the MGM Investor Relations website at <http://investors.mgmresorts.com>.

MGM Resorts International Strengthens Global Commitment to Anti-Human Trafficking Efforts The company is now a member of ECPAT-USA's Code of Conduct for the Protection of Children from Sexual Exploitation in Travel and Tourism

May 23, 2019 -- After years of independent anti-human trafficking activity MGM Resorts has signed ECPAT's Tourism Child-Protection Code of Conduct (The Code), a worldwide network of organizations working to end the sexual exploitation of children. ECPAT supports shelters for survivors and law enforcement training, conducts a wide range of research of human trafficking to inform policy making and advocates for change with governments, business and other societal institutions.

MGM Resorts has already implemented several measures against human trafficking, including establishing relevant policies, procedures and practices, as well as educating and training employees. Joining ECPAT gives renewed focus to these commitments and provides the Company with an additional platform to reinforce its internal efforts with enhanced collaboration and engagement with external partners and resources.

MGM Resorts' M life Rewards Hosts 'All In For Service' Poker Tournament July 13 & 14 Company Celebrates Military & Veterans Program (MVP) Second Anniversary with Tournament Benefiting Military Non-Profits

May 22, 2019 -- This summer, MGM Resorts is going "all in" to celebrate the second anniversary of its M life Rewards' Military & Veterans Program (MVP) with a poker tournament honoring our military and giving back to the community. All are welcome to participate with $100 of each $570 entry donated to local non-profit military organizations including U.S. Vets, Fisher House, USO, the American Legion and VFW.

"This tournament is another opportunity for us to say 'thank you,' bring people together for some fun and support several groups doing incredible work," said John Flynn, Vice President, Office of the Chairman and CEO at MGM Resorts International. "As a member of the armed forces, I am proud to see the ways we are enhancing this program with special events like this, resulting in meaningful moments for all service members, veterans, spouses, our guests and our employees."

Registration will open on July 12.
